

Name – Brinal Chimanlal Bheda
EE 599 – Homework 1

The plots showing the trained and predicted audio samples are shown below:

We can observe that the convergence graph is decreasing exponentially which proves that the training data and the predicted data matched for the model. The errors are lowering gradually, however, there might be spikes in the convergence graph as there are new phonemes introduced in the model and it is learning about those for the first time.

